• Dr. Church was great. I am not a philosophy major, but he made the course easy to follow and very interesting. • Dr. Church is an excellent professor. I am not a humanities major but Dr. Church made the class accessible to me. I appreciate his quick response to emails and approachability. Sometimes the topics in class were a little dry and I found it hard to connect, but I realize that might be more of an issue on my side regarding general interest in the topic as opposed to Dr. Church's abilities to teach. I enjoyed the class overall and would take it again because of Dr. Church. • Dr. Church did a great job! He was easy to follow in class and kept the whole period lively and interesting. • Dr. Church is great. • I don't particularly like philosophy, but I loved this class. Dr. Church is a wonderful professor who is not only engaging, but knows the material very well. It is professors like him that make me happy I chose to come to Hillsdale. • I would have loved to read more primary material, especially near the beginning, and then talk about the ideas behind it in class instead of reading about the ideas and then mostly hearing the same things again in class. I liked the last few readings that we just discussed the ideas of in class with just the source texts. • Good lectures. I thought it was dumb how there were only like 120 points available for the entire class. It is weird to get a multiple-choice question wrong on a quiz and then it counts as a whole percent off your course grade. Other than that, the class was good and Church was an effective teacher of the subject matter. Probably one of the better lecture profs I've had. • Dr. Church is the best, and even though I am not a philosophical person, he tried to make the class as interesting as possible. • Great class, keep it up Dr. Church!
